Program Overview

Experience the natural beauty of New Zealand's South Island while being introduced to the meat, dairy and wine-making industry of the area!

The program allows students to explore the amazing countryside, from the Pacific Ocean to the Southern Alps, as well as the city of Christchurch and the village of Lincoln. The program mixes lectures on the meat, dairy and wine industry combined with visits to farms and manufacturing facilities. Program excursions include rafting down the Rangitata River, whale watching off the coast of Kaikoura, and visiting a Maori Marae. During the program students also visit the Antarctic Center and experience what it is like to be in an arctic snow and ice storm.

So, if you are interested in learning about the meat, dairy and wine industry of New Zealand, then this is the program for you!

Program Location

The program is based in the town of Lincoln at Lincoln University on the South Island. Lincoln is a small town with about 3,000 people, but is only about 25 minutes from Christchurch, the largest city on the South Island. Buses run frequently between Lincoln and Christchurch.

Since it is in the Southern Hemisphere, the seasons are shifted from those in the U.S.A. Therefore, since the program takes place during our winter, it is summer in New Zealand. The average high temperature in Christchurch in January is 71 and the average low is 54. In terms of the time difference, in January, when it is 1:00 P.M. on Wednesday in Missouri it is 8:00 A.M. on Thursday in New Zealand.

Accommodation

Students stay in dormitories at Lincoln University and eat most meals on campus. Students also have computer and internet access while on campus at Lincoln.

Funding Study Abroad

CAFNR scholarships and loans are available for this program. Students may also use Financial Aid and University Scholarships for study abroad. For additional information please visit our website: http://cafnr.missouri.edu/study-abroad/.
